EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Introduction

This memorandum provides some background to, and an explanation of, the exposure draft of the IESBA's proposed Strategic and Operational Plan for the period 2008-2009, released for public comment on July 1, 2007.

The IESBA's current Strategic and Operating Plan, drafted in 2005 was approved in February 2006, set the direction and priorities for the activities of the IESBA to December 2007. The IESBA has developed a new Strategic and Operational Plan and seeks comments on its proposed strategic direction and intended projects and activities for the period 2008-2009. The IESBA will consider comments received at its meeting in October 2007.

Background

The International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) is the worldwide organization for the accountancy profession. IFAC's mission, as set out in its constitution, is "to serve the public interest, strengthen the accountancy profession worldwide and contribute to the development of international economies by establishing and promoting adherence to high quality professional standards, furthering international convergence of such standards, and speaking out on public interest issues where the profession's expertise is most relevant."

In pursuing this mission, the IFAC Board has established the IESBA to function as an independent standard-setting body under the auspices of IFAC and subject to the oversight of the Public Interest Oversight Board (PIOB). The IESBA develops and issues, in the public interest and under its own authority, high quality ethical standards and other pronouncements for professional accountants for use around the world.

In addition, the IESBA promotes good ethical practices and fosters international debate on ethical issues faced by professional accountants.

Content of Proposed Strategic and Operational Plan

The proposed Strategic and Operational Plan outlines how the IESBA's mission and objectives align with IFAC's strategic priorities, and also explains how the IESBA works to achieve its objective as set out in its Terms of Reference, which is to serve the public interest by setting high quality ethical standards for professional accountant and by facilitating the convergence of international and national ethical standards, thereby enhancing the quality and consistency of services provided by professional accountants throughout the world and strengthening public confidence in the global accounting profession.

Current Work Program

In meeting this strategy, the IESBA intends to complete three projects that it already has in progress. These are:

- i) Revisions to the independence requirements contained in the Code as proposed in the exposure draft issued in December 2006 proposing revisions to existing Section

290 Independence – Audit and Review Engagements and proposing new Section
291 Independence – Other Assurance Engagements;

- ii) Additional revisions to independence requirements as appropriate after consideration of the existing guidance related to the provision of internal audit services to audit client, economic dependence on an assurance client and independence implication of contingent fees; and
- iii) The development of additional guidance for accountants in government.

In addition the IESBA will consider the implications on the Code of the new drafting conventions adopted by the Clarity Project by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board.

As can be seen from the draft Work Program contained in Appendix 1 of the proposed Strategic and Operational Plan, the three projects noted above are scheduled to be completed at various dates in 2008.

Proposed Future Work Program

[To be developed after consideration of survey results. We will mention that the proposed future work program is based on input we received from a survey of key stakeholders]

Guide for Commentators

The IESBA would like to receive comments on all matters related to its proposed Strategic and Operational Plan for the period 2008-2009. Anyone offering comments should refer to specific sections of the proposed Strategic and Operational Plan, include the reasons for the comments, and, where appropriate, make explicit suggestions for proposed changes to the plan. The IESBA would also like to hear from respondents agreeing with this exposure draft.

The IESBA is particularly interested in comments on the matters set out below:

- 1) [To be developed]

INTERNATIONAL ETHICS STANDARDS BOARD FOR ACCOUNTANTS

DRAFT STRATEGIC AND OPERATIONAL PLAN 2008-2009

The purpose of this plan is to set the direction and priorities for activities of the International Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA)¹ for the two year period from January 2008 to December 2009.

1. BACKGROUND

International Federation of Accountants (IFAC)

IFAC² is the worldwide organization for the accountancy profession. IFAC's mission, as set out in its constitution, is "to serve the public interest, strengthen the accountancy profession worldwide and contribute to the development of international economies by establishing and promoting adherence to high quality professional standards, furthering international convergence of such standards, and speaking out on public interest issues where the profession's expertise is most relevant."

IFAC's strategic plan identifies desired outcomes that IFAC aims to influence or have a direct impact on through the delivery of its services. These are:

- Improved audit practices;
- Improved financial management practices;
- Strong professional accountancy institutions around the globe;
- Strong ethical culture within individual professional accountants;
- Convergence to high quality international standards; and
- Confidence in international standards.

In pursuit of these outcomes, the IFAC Board has established the IESBA to function as an independent standard-setting body under the auspices of IFAC and subject to the oversight of the Public Interest Oversight Board (PIOB)³.

International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA)

As an independent standard setting body under the auspices of IFAC, the IESBA develops and issues, in the public interest and under its own authority, high quality ethical standards and other pronouncements for professional accountants for use around the world.

In addition, the IESBA promotes good ethical practices and fosters international debate on ethical issues faced by professional accountants.

² More information on IFAC is available at www.ifac.org

³ More information on the PIOB can be found at www.ipiob.org

The IESBA's Consultative Advisory Group (CAG)⁴ provides input to and assists the IESBA in the achievement of its objectives by providing advice on the IESBA's agenda, priorities and projects.

2. IESBA OBJECTIVE

The IESBA has established its Terms of Reference, approved by the IFAC Board and the PIOB. The objective of the IESBA is

“To serve the public interest by setting high quality ethical standards for professional accountants and by facilitating the convergence of international and national ethical standards, thereby enhancing the quality and consistency of services provided by professional accountant.”

The IESBA also promotes good ethical practices and fosters international debate on ethical issues faced by professional accountants thus assisting in furthering IFAC's strategic objective of speaking out on public interest issues relating to ethics.

The IESBA's objectives are aligned with IFAC's desired outcomes as illustrated in Table 1 below:

Table 1: Alignment of IFAC and IESBA Strategy

	IESBA Objective
IFAC Desired Outcome	Establish standards and other statements	Facilitating convergence of international and national ethical standards	Promoting good ethical practices and fostering international debate
Improved audit practices	Direct impact	Direct impact	Influence
Improved financial management practices	Direct impact	Direct impact	Influence
Strong professional accountancy institutions around the globe	Direct impact	Direct impact	Influence

⁴ More information on the CAG is available at www.ifac.org/Ethics/About.php#ConsultativeAdvisoryGroup

Convergence to high quality international standards	Influence	Direct impact	Influence
Confidence in international standards	Direct impact	Direct impact	Influence

In fulfilling the above objective, the IESBA develops and issues the following:

- a) The Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants which establishes a principles-based standard of professional ethics for professional accountants and provides a conceptual framework for applying these principles. No member body of IFAC or firm issuing reports in accordance with International Auditing and Assurance Standards is allowed to apply less stringent standards than those stated in the Code. However, if a member body or firm is prohibited by law or regulation from complying with certain parts of the Code they should comply with all other parts of the Code;
- b) Code of Ethics Interpretations which assist in the application of the Code;
- c) The IESBA also publishes other pronouncements on ethics related matters, thereby advancing public understanding of the ethical requirements of professional accountants.

The last two revisions to The Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants were:

- In July 2005 the Code was revised to establish a conceptual framework for all accountants to ensure compliance with five fundamental principles of professional ethics: integrity, objectivity, professional competence and due care, confidentiality and professional behavior Under the framework, all professional accountants are required to identify threats to these fundamental principles and, if there are threats, apply safeguards to ensure that the principles are not compromised. The framework applies to all professional accountants, those in public practice and those in business and industry; and
- In July 2006 the IESBA revised the definition of network firm contained in the Code.

3. DEVELOPMENT OF IESBA PRONOUNCEMENTS

In developing its pronouncements, the IESBA consults with its CAG and obtains advice on the IESBA's agenda, work plan, including project priorities and technical advice on projects.

Meeting agenda papers are published on the IFAC website and draft minutes are published after each meeting. All IESBA meetings are open to the public.

Draft proposed changes to the Code are exposed for public comment for a minimum of 90 days. Each exposure draft is accompanied by an explanatory memorandum which provide background to, and an explanation of, proposed changes contained in the exposure draft and specific areas on which the IESBA is seeking comment. The IESBA deliberates significant matters raised in the comment letters received before approving final changes to the Code for publication⁵. With each change to the Code, the IESBA issues a separate document containing the basis for conclusion with respect to comments received on the exposure draft.

4. REPORTING AND COMMUNICATION

In addition to reporting periodically to the PIOB and to the CAG, the IESBA reports publicly on its work program, activities and progress made in achieving its objectives each year. This report will be made available on the IFAC website, and is normally included as part of the IFAC annual report.

The IESBA will undertake specific communication activities, in order to better achieve its objectives in the period 2008-2009, potentially including:

- A communications plan for IESBA pronouncements; and
- Holding a public forum or roundtable and appropriate; and
- Issuing consultation papers in order to solicit views on matters under consideration.

5. OPERATIONAL PLAN AND WORK PROGRAM

The IESBA intends to complete three projects that it already has in progress. These are:

- i) Revisions to the independence requirements contained in the Code as proposed in the exposure draft issued in December 2006 proposing revisions to existing Section 290 Independence – Audit and Review Engagements and proposing new Section 291 Independence – Other Assurance Engagements;
- ii) Additional revisions to independence requirements as appropriate after consideration of the existing guidance related to the provision of internal audit services to audit client, economic dependence on an assurance client and independence implication of contingent fees; and
- iii) The development of additional guidance for accountants in government.

In addition the IESBA will consider the implications on the Code of the new drafting conventions adopted by the Clarity Project by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board.

As can be seen from the draft Work Program contained in Appendix 1 of the proposed Strategic and Operational Plan, these three projects are scheduled to be completed at various dates in 2008.

Appendix 2 contains both proposed projects and activities and a list of potential projects and activities which may be undertaken by the IESBA in support of the objectives set out above. [To be developed based on input from survey]

⁵ More information on the due process followed by the IESBA in the development of IESBA pronouncements is available at www.ifac.org/Ethics/About.php#PublicInterest.

Key Assumptions

In developing and issuing revisions to and interpretations of the Code the IESBA follows rigorous and robust due process and working procedures which includes consultation with stakeholders around the world.

- The IESBA meets for 2-3 days, 3-4 times per year (generally for a total of 6-10 days per year);
- The amount of meeting time needed to discuss a project varies significantly depending upon the scope of the project and the stage of its development. For example, the proposed revisions to independence requirements issued in December 2006 were extensive and necessitated the majority of IESBA meeting time during 2006. Conversely, the revisions to the definition of network firm were less extensive and required 1-5 hours of meeting time. The chart which follows illustrates the time commitment for such a “major” and “regular” project;
- The IESBA is usually able to consider a maximum of 3 regular projects and 1 major project at any meeting;
- Time is needed between meetings for Task Forces to develop material for consideration by the full IESBA;
- The exposure period for proposed revisions to the Code is a minimum of 90 days. In the case of a major revision the IESBA considers whether a longer period is appropriate. The IESBA is also mindful of the need of some jurisdictions to translate an ED before providing input from that particular jurisdiction.
- Total lapsed time required for completion of a project ranges from 12-26 months, not including any re-exposure that might be necessary, and depends on the status of the complexity and scope of the project and whether it is a standard or an interpretation.

These factors have been taken into consideration in developing the Draft Work Program contained in Appendix 1.
